Florence, honey:

I hope that this finds you and Jimmy rapidly overcoming the first shock of this new set up just as I am. But as you will know everything is temporary, we are constantly in a state of change; so keep the chin up, the courage high, and I hope we will soon be together again. As yet nothing has happened to give me any inkling as to my future disposition, but I remain hopeful and hoping.

The day has been a long busy one, but not strenuous. Friday we see the classification officer and maybe soon I will know more. Under separate cover I have forwarded my clothes, and while you would send me Addie's waiting kit and apron. As yet I need nothing else but will let you know when I do.

Please take good care of yourself and the little feller - also advise my folks that all is well -

Love and kisses,

as ever
