Wednesday eve

George, dearest:

Not much to relate but all goes well at home. It was raining into and deep all day long and Jim and I had fun playing with a new toy which arrived today. My sister, a nurse, figurine and others were also in same mail. Jim and I thank you so much for the lovely stuff, darling Daddy.

The folks called and had a letter from you.

Edy's brother called and expects to pay us a short visit tomorrow night after 10 o'clock. He's bringing a new girl. Also goes to my friend Betty Perlman who's well and looks fine for a while. Others we're all very handsome on both sides of the ocean. Loving you is all that matters these days and from the fact that we're all up for the day. I hope that'll mean you'll return soon after 5 to 7 - or less the army has other plans for you? Stay well and so always, Jim and I send you all our love and devotion. Yours forever,
