Monday eve

Large, sweet heart,

We're having another down pour tonight with lightning and thunder. Jim and I are alone in the house but we have nice neighbors upstairs. Mom will be back from New York in a day or so after settling some of her affairs.

It's grand breaking every morning to the sound of birds and softest "Good morning" to you and then to me. We're having a nice time here but you'd make it heavenly. Most of the day was spent in or near the house and Jennie helped me hang some things on the line to dry. No mail from you but I did get a short note from Pop with his insurance bill enclosed. I'll take care of it.

Jim and I love you more and more, miss you as always and keep on wishing for your early return
All this love Darling, if you will let me say so
