Thursday ^{aft} night.

Large, my love,

To-day was a very mild day, more like Spring weather and baby and I were out for hours. Jimmie also had his nap outdoors while I did my shopping. There was a letter from you and also the booklet on the French Quarter. Thanks, darling, for both. It's still a great thrill to find a letter from you in the mail box. The gas bill came to-day and Bunny paid it for me while he paid those of his family, therefore I don't have to send a check.

Kay called last night, sends her regards to you and is working temporarily. Anita has been promoted to her first Grade in Junior High and has a week's vacation like all the other school kids. They're all well and may pay us a visit soon. Sam is still working nights.

Sanny also called to tell me that Harved flew in and has a ten day furlough. Bernie was inducted into the navy on Tuesday so there's all's well with them. He sends his regards to you, too. Mr. Pinus hasn't called in a few days so I may call him to-morrow and I did write Jerry R. a thank you note for the box of candy.

You're still the love in my life and my thoughts are of you always. Last night I dreamed of you and it was such a sweet dream - if only it came true but again I have to be patient and keep up that courage. Baby too makes me very brave and happy and also thankful for what I do have. So that chin is still up, my dearest George.

Bess and Hy, Joel and Thelma drove around to see us this afternoon while we were at the side of the house. They're quite elated and plan to go away for a week's vacation starting next Monday. They all send regards to you. I gave Bess the Taylor Tot and now have more space in the closet.

I just called your mother and all's fine with the folks. They're expecting your call on Sat. and I'll pay the bill.

Supper is finished - I started this letter at 5 and now it's 7:15. Baby is asleep and I'm going to cut a corduroy outfit for baby to-night. Good-night, my darling, and all my love to you.

Lovingly yours,
Flavene
