SEE INSTRUCTION NO. 2

Thursday eve

Dearest Ireland,

Everyone at home is fine and we're having nice cool weather. Wrote you a regular letter and also Ireland some snaps this afternoon. Had the whole aligned and car is in perfect shape now.

Received your April 7th letter this morning and also the enclosed 30.00. Thank you, my love. Jim's wooden executor arrived in the late afternoon and in good order. It's a honey and will be put away until you come home to play with Jim. That'll be soon, we hope.

We'll spend the summer in the country. I have two choirs - Bloss's new apartment in Monticello is a cottage in Chathamville. Hope you've received the camera by now and am sending you're clothes to Hawaii. Jim and I send you all our love and affection. Sleep well, dearest Daddy. As always,
Love, Mom
