

Monday night -
Jan 17th 1944.

George, my darling,

It's quite late now, almost 12 AM, and I've been to another movie to-night.

The excitement of last night's movie,

Your ~~few~~ letters to-day and going to the movies again is just a little too much for your morning.

Before I continue, I love you so very much, my dearest, and hope our reunion will be very soon. Baby and I are fine and I'm glad to know that you're well and not working too hard.
All's well on the home front, as usual.

Last night Eleanor stayed with baby while I went to the Marine to see "Thousands Cheer". It was a swell picture and I felt silly laughing out loud. But I did and enjoyed the show very much, came home at 12 and got to bed at 1 a.m. Eleanor stayed for the night and Jimmie is very fond of his Aunt.

Today all went well with Jimmie.
He is eating much better and looks fine.
We spent most of the day outdoors because the weather turned milder and the sun came out again.

Mr. Pinus called and sends his best regards. He and his wife will be here to see me soon, he says.

Ann Rosenberg also called this morning to tell me she was writing to you and is coming out here with Ruth to say us a visit this week-end.

To-night after supper Betty insisted that I go to the movies with her as she didn't want to go alone. Ben was going to be out of town for a few days and she didn't know when she'd be able to see a movie therefore I went with her. I did prefer to stay at home but she's been so swell I couldn't refuse. To the ~~the~~ ~~the~~ we went to see "Rosie O'Grady" and "The Saturn and the Co-Ed" - both just fair. Then we treated ourselves to malted and finally home. Baby is O. K. slept all evening without awaking and is now fast asleep in his crib.

You'll notice how I've scribbled this but I'm very tired and still love you sweetheart.

Good night - pleasant dreams. Love
Florence
