March 12 1944.

Large, my love,

Another week gone and that means the time is getting closer when we'll be with you or you'll be getting that farlough. We all miss you so much and it still seems incredible that you're gone four whole months. Good!

Mom and Pop were with us most of the day and look very well. They had some card and supper party to attend on the last side and left at 4.30 p.m.

Pop likes the liquor I gave him and also thanks you for the blades. Their love to you.

Lanny and Bernie also paid us a visit and brought baby a S.D. ^{feet} ~~trunk~~ which is pulled by a string. He loves it and soon will need a toy chest for his collection of junk. Lanny and Bernie look fine and send their regards to you. Len also brought 2 packs of films which I insisted upon paying for.

Eleanor is with me, slept overnight and is going to the movies to night with Betty. She's fine and sends her best to you.

Only sure means her out and that's a little relief for me on Sundays.

Mom and Dad also had a grand time with him and you should see the lovely overalls Mom made for freemans. They fit him fine and he'll be another Bear Brummel with all his clothes.

We're all fine and the weather was milder to-day. There is a joke Eleanor just related. A private goes to his C.O. for a week-end pass - reason. his wife was "expecting".
 This was repeated the following week and after the fourth time the C.O. said to the private - now listen, here, but, for the last four weeks you've had the same excuse and now what is your wife expecting.

"Me", sir "said the private."

It's a little early but it's funny.

Baby has to be fed soon and washed so I'll try to write a lengthy letter to-morrow, if possible. It's really getting me a bit stumped writing the same news daily but as long as you don't mind the monotony, I'll keep it up.

I love you as always, darling, and still hope and long for that Victory soon.

Good night, until to-morrow. My love to you and a hug and kiss from Jimmie.
Always, Florence
