George dearest,

How wonderful it is to be in love with you, the grandest person in all this world. There was a lovely crescent moon at last night and all I could think of was you and romance. That's the school-girl in me and but I like the idea of romance in connection with you only. When you called me of your call last night, I was thrilled to the core and happy to know that all goes well with you down in New Orleans.

Your folks came about lunch time to-day, stayed with us most of the day and got a great deal of joy from that son of ours. What a sweet bundle we possess and I hope there'll be others like him soon. The weather was grand, just a bit windy and after walking around the block I decided to use the car for a short spin. We drove through Prospect Park, Pop sat with me up front and Mom wrestled with baby in the back seat. He was climbing all over the back, jumped up and down the seat and then Mom handed Jimmie to Pop - he was wearing her out. Pop kept him amused and later he sat quietly until I drove back to the garage. When we got into the cozy apartment of ours, I made some hot drinks and then my sister Eleanor came to spend the evening with me.

Enclosed find some more of those candid shots, if you want to keep all of them do so, if not send back those you want me to keep and I hope you like them.

All my love to you darling and until to-morrow,
I am
Yours always,
Florence
A kiss from baby
