[Letter]

July 21st 1942

Dear George & Flo,

A few words to acknowledge receipt of my [rotine?] and cigarettes.

Range firing is a tough grind. We rise at 4: A.M. and work through until 6:P.M. So far I'm up there with the leading 5% of the company; but I'm not doing as well as I expected. However, I hope to do better.

Nothing much of any importance happening.

Sorry to cut this short; but am extremely fatigued.

Hope the heat hasn't got you down ----

Love & Kisses

BoB
