Wednesday afternoon,

My darling George,

It's a grand day and the sky is a heavenly blue. I'm so happy all is well. But I still miss you so much and love you so much.

Liesel left for N. Y. this morning to see Flora, who had a baby girl 2 days ago, and she'll phone you when she gets into town. Will you please send up with her, if possible, a swim suit size 34 preferably in cotton - pique as seeracher - ballerina style a pretty colour and not more than 1.98 or (2.98). Perhaps she can get it too.

Just received letters from Ruth Gilbert and my sister Eleanor. Tell El if she calls that this place isn't up to Season as Green mansions and I don't know whether she'll really have a good time. At present there are only girls - about 12 and married couples - 1 man.
And there'll be plenty of more gals for the 4th week-end.

Al isn't doing too much business right now but he's kept busy "shmoozing" with the guests and keeping everyone happy. He knocks himself out being funny.

So happy to know you're well and that everything is being taken care of. Tell Lanny I'm sorry to hear about his tooth - But he'll live.

I hope business is good and that it continues that way from now on.

As yet, I still have enough cash - I've spent very little and I don't go into town too often to buy anything. My tan is getting darker and my skin is feeling. Everyone remarks how well I look.

This morning I sunbathed in the cabana and later I shampooed and set my hair.
I'll probably spend most of the afternoon in a canoe or boat with Molly, a very nice person I met.

So my love, keep well and keep on loving me as I love you.

Yours
Harold

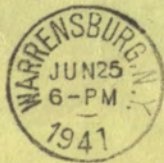

FS.
