

Northgarmouth July the 14: 1759 <sup>3</sup> 101

I dare Brother I having an opportunity to acquaint you concerning the affaires about Religion in our town I boldly embrace it Since I writ to you last Mr. Loran hath Preached up that Doctrine that there is more hopes of a morose tormented Person being saved than Morill onest and to Prove his Doctrin he Declares that fornicers were morill onest men and that the Publicans and harlots were not, and went into the Kingdom of heaven before them and the the next Sabbath he Preached up that Doctrin that no man was saved but what damned him selfe. and that we must believe all the scriptures whether we understood it or not, and then followed with an other sermon that if a man Prays and fasts night and day all his days if he want Elected he could never be saved: — Mr. Patter holding much of the arminion Principles and Vainly Goddard Learning minits down all his sermons and makes a mock at the and by his Pleasant way of argument had got a considerable Party with him and had like to brought the whole town into Confusion But I think it is better well over at Present Mr. Loran Declaring that when he came to Examine his notes he found he had Preached contrary to what he aimed at or design and so people generally for Give him But I think Mr. Loran two much of the old Calvinist and Mr. Patter a strong arminion so that neither of them can be Right But I am in Mr. Loran will Conserve But there is no hopes of Mr. Patter as for what you writ to me upon Religion I approve of very well for I am of the same way of thinking so that the usages opinions dont alter me But it is very hurtfull to young People where they have Good Education for the cleave to people that is a moan that is arguing upon Religion But I hope it will turn oute for the better and not for the worse unto us — as to our worldly affaires they are much with us as they were when I dwelt before so having nothing now to write I rest with all Love and Respect that is due from your Loving Brother till Death

Peter Wbare

I Desire you would Remember my Duty to father and mother and my Love to Brothers and sisters and all friends
