Dear Florence,

Boy, oh boy! Are you lucky to be away!
Even three days a week are too much for me in this intense heat. You know I decided to work this summer, which is the first time, ever.

I see by your card that you picked a choice spot and you should get every minute's ^{rest} from this vacation. How's George bearing up under the strain? How are your friends Al & Lugette? My spelling may be faulty. To give me.

I hope to go away for the 7th but my plans depend upon Bernie.
If we go to-gether, we'll go to Atlantic City - stay European plan. Otherwise I may join the girls, last minute, must do Bernie's disgust. He's a good guy...

I was thinking we might ask George to dinner some night but it's hardly worth the trip.

I am writing here in the office with the Dr. looking on, but don't you worry I've done my bit to-day - so I hope you're getting every benefit from your stay and that this will reach you ^{what} ~~well~~. the way I am addressing
it. Love, Betty
