Dear Bob,

I am still around and I haven't definitely decided whether I would prefer the WAAC's or the WAVE's. You see I still have another year to decide if I want to join the WAAC's. The WAVE's would accept me but I don't think I would enjoy that branch of the service.

Larry Sellman was drafted into the Navy and he left this past Thursday. He always wanted to join the Navy and he finally got what he wanted.

Irwin Schwefel is now a Second Lieutenant in the Air Corps. He finished his course about a month ago and I don't know where he is now. He is probably seeing the world from above.

Now to get back to you. Your earnings for the year 1942 are as follows:

1st Quarter 1942	$360.00
2nd " 1942	90.00
	$450.00

How are you doing? Before I forget Betsy, Henry Cohen's wife, had a baby boy. Aren't you happy? The name is Nicholas Bruce Cohen.

Take care of yourself and be good.

Helen
