Dear Sister:

I rec'd

your letter yesterday just one week from its date, also a ^{int} Bargain annual & a ~~Quora~~ Weekly Journal from Mr. Siskey (Squires) I sent you a hastily written letter yesterday saying I had received the one.
You will perceive we yet stay here in fact the weather is so dreadful cold don't think we shall move till it is warmer I have got a cupper full of dried apple on string, as the great quarter honor up can see the marks of that old apple peeler. I guess you have the 75 center yet. I opened the can of No. 1 matres this morning they were a little sour but by boiling with

Dear Sister:

I rec'd your letter yesterday just one week from its date, also a Congregationalist & a [?] Weekly Journal from Mr Dickey (I guess) I sent you a hastily written letter saturday saying I had received the box. You will perceive We yet stay here in fact the weather is so dreadfully cold don't think we shall move till it is warmer. I have a dipper full of dried apples on stewing, as the great quarters turn up I can see the marks of that old apple pearer, and guess you have the 75 center yet. I opened the can of to-matoes this morning they were a little sour but by boiling a little were very nice if you send any more seal them air tight The sausages were Wk Wk don't try to send any more apple pie since will keep Must not send any love to me till I write for it. I don't need any mittens. don't send me any more letter paper just think when you send such things perhaps you are compelling me to buy it or throw it away. you know I am not afraid to speak of my wants my aim is on a march not how much I can carry but how little. I sent you a book "Adjutant Platts" which James sent me. thinking I should not be able to carry it. I sent you some cuts from a journal which so well illustrates our march in Vir. that I sent it you. I think it written by Mr Manning. of the Old South We were paid off for a month & a half only Expect to be paid off they were very nice if you send any more seal them air tight. The sausages were tip top. Don't try to send any more apple pies mince will keep. Need not send any box to me till I write for it. I don't need any mittens. don't send me any more letter paper just think when you send me such things perhaps you are compelling me to lug it or throw it away. you know I am not afraid to speak of my wants my aim is on a march not how much I can carry but how little. I sent you a book "Adjutant Stearns" which James sent me. thinking I should not able to carry it. I sent you some cuts from a journal which so well illustrates our march in Vir. that I sent it you. I think it written by Mr Manning of the Old South. We were paid off for a month & a half only & expect to be paid off up to the 1st Jan. in a few days two months. What does Father do with this taxes on that land I send you a paper I got the other day James sends me the weekly journals every week A paper costs 10 cts here

That round dish you sent will be quite handy this morning I mixed up a good indian cake in it and baked it in a spider

That can will be a glorious thing for us to make tea & coffee in We shall use it for a thousand purposes. I wish you had sent me some pop corn
