Thursday aft.

Dearest released,

Your March 5th v. mail arrived this morning and it was good to read that you're well and that you're as optimistic about the war as we are. In fact, I don't think I'll mail any more parcels because of an inner feeling I have that you'll be home soon.

The folks are well and Jim and I are fine and dandy. With the nice weather all week, it was good to be outdoors often and spring will officially be in within 6 days. Mr. Kessler called this morning and is mailing us a check from the state transaction.

In yesterday's letter I mentioned that I returned both policies from the vault and both have the war risk rider attached. Shall I cancel both or just the latest one, the 2000 policy. Let me hear from you.

Jim is napping now and we'll be out for the aft. Love when he awakes. All my love to you, darling, and loads of kisses and hugs from Jim and Florence
