Hello Dearest.

This is my second attempt at this letter. The first was sent back by the censor.

Our schedule here has kept me busy so I haven't had much spare time. So far I haven't been seasick but I've been on the verge of it a few times. They say that if you eat enough it doesn't effect you.

Well Bury, how are you? I've been thinking of you. I have plenty of time for it while on duty. Dreamt about being with you. What a disappointment to awake and find it was only a dream.

Yesterday we were each given 2 cartons of cigarette. The day before a bar of candy.

By the way how, if you want to knit something (child) you can make a scarf. It's quite cool now and I could use one.

Did you get a job yet? Any changes at home? Let me know if I write large enough for these letters.

That's all for now. Love to the folks and regard to all the kids.

as ever yours,
Hal
