

Saturday.

Dear George:

I'm still gambling your being at Camp Nylon at the time of arrival of this letter. Your first letter received last night was very interesting to me and the family and I am really anxious to see a real soldier. Now about my handwriting. I want you to know that special pains is now being taken to prevent breaking your teeth on this one. Why the hell I never was taught how to write legibly is beyond my understanding and strictly a fault of my teacher. Now am I doing as far. Well I will now call for myself a recess and go fetches fish and after being well fatigued will then return to the arduous task of completing this epistle. So hold tight. Well back again on the job after a lovely repast. I trust that you fared equally as well. Can't say that I'm not trying on the handwriting angle.

Received a card from the Master in which he advises that a meeting is being held on December 7th at 7:30 P.M. prior to the opening of the Lodge, of all Post Masters (that means me). The purpose of the meeting

My dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the above named case, and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully, is not stated, but it might have something to do with the election of the new master. Time and December 7, will tell. No matter what happens I still am of the firm belief that you are the logical and No. 1. man to be Master for 1944.

I missed the last Social Welfare Meeting, having gone to Fort Hancock with the Basketball team. (by boat & with the VACS) and oh yes we lost. But I was told by the Secretary ^{and me} that about 6 attended. Now with you in the Army the Lodge and its committee may just as well fold up. Nobody to start any action.

How did you like the way in Army serves Turkey, and did you really get salami sandwiches at Securus Friday night.

Just to give you an idea of how busy I am, I started this letter at 9:15 A.M. and now it is 4:30 P.M. and I may as well close up. As for the week end will say. As long as I remain
