

Letter, Florence Stoff to George Stoff, Brooklyn, New York, December 15, 1944,
V-Mail 2 [Transcriber; Kathryn Manning]

Mrs. Florence Stoff
3021 Avenue I
Brooklyn 10, N.Y.

CpL. George Stoff
COA-735 RWY OPN BN
APO # 562 c/o Postmaster
New York, N.Y.

Friday eve – Dec. 15th

Darling,

All's well in your little domain and Jim is now in the arms of Morpheus. Expect to see Thelma in a few minutes and Betty will watch him until I return. Hope you're fine and dandy, my love, and you're getting a steady flow of mail. Jim received a package from a Mr Jonis Saks whom I believe is a worker in your office. It contained a nice, educational toy and Jim played with it all afternoon. We'll thank him by note and call him on the phone to-morrow. No mail from you today but received a dividend check for $8.75 from [Ms Kesser Colks?] .

Was kept very busy all day long but managed to get outdoors with Jimmie for a nice walk in the sunshine. Shopping is terrific these days and I'm always on the lookout for something for you to nosh.

Stay well, beloved and remember that we love you every moment. Just don't worry. All my love, adoration, affection and kisses to the best sweetheart ever. Love from Jimmie.

Lovingly, Florence