Dear Florence:

We received your card. Thank goodness the weather has changed.

I've been kept pretty busy here in the store and will certainly appreciate the holiday week end off.

It seems Rubin always takes his vacation the first week in July and when he returns Smith usually goes. Nothing has been discussed here about vacations, not yet anyway, so I'll just have to make plans to go away later.

I will however
go up there for the fourth. It would hardly pay tho to go up by train so I'll call George and after I've made arrangements
you can make a reservation for me and maybe Marion. We're all fine at home.

The corn in the back yard is coming up so nicely. I'll send you some if you're still up there
when they're ripe.

Here comes Marion
now, so I'll go home
to dinner and write

to you again real
soon.

Love

Eleanor
