

Sir

98
Philadelphia June 29. 1780

The urgent necessity of drawing into the public Treasury over a Million of Dollars mentioned in the Act of the 19th of May has been ~~made~~ fully pointed out that Congress exceedingly regret the failure of this necessary supply. The conjuncture is already arrived ~~when~~ when it is become essential not only to the operations of this campaign, but to the very existence of the Army. Congress therefore can no longer delay restoring the most unfortunate solicitations that the Proportions of each of the States be forwarded immediately. — for this purpose they have dispatched a special Messenger & they trust he will not meet with disappointment.
A further sum must also be speedily had, or it will be impossible for the Operations to proceed. — Congress have therefore drawn on those States for the Remainder of their Quota, to the first of March last inclusive, and it is their Duty to conjure the States, if they should still be unprepared. — That they will at all Events transmit their Quotas to the period last mentioned to the Continental Treasury within thirty days from the date of the Warrants.

The monthly Estimate of Money heretofore made were but barely sufficient at that time — their Value has since greatly diminished and the Payment that has been delayed long after it became due. — These circumstances have already involved our Affairs in much perplexity and driven to expedients which nothing but the last necessity ^{could} justify. Formancy and Arrangement in the public Finances must at every Hazard be introduced and supported. — In this View Congress do again with the most earnest solicitude press on the several States the Necessity of vigorous & decisive Measures for carrying into full and immediate execution their Resolutions of the 10th of March last. The doing of which, at the same time that it places public Credit on the surest Basis, will in the course of the year give

The Relief that could possibly result from a further Emission equal to the whole that is now in Circulation. These Resolutions Congress are persuaded are every day better understood - And that upon giving them their full Effect very much depends the final Establishment of our Liberties.

It is unnecessary that Congress should suggest to the several States the Expediency of Providing by Loans - against any Deficiency they may have Reason to apprehend from their Treasuries.

The Blank Bills for the several States will be forwarded as fast as the Acts of their Assemblies providing Funds for them are transmitted to Congress.

By Order of Congress

Sam. Huntington President

The Honorable
The President of the Council of the State of New Hampshire
