Saturday

Dearest George,

Jim and I are well and hope you're that way too. No mail from you in 2 days so I hope Sunday's mail will bring good tidings. We spent most of the day indoors and it rained all day long.

Blanche came this evening to stay overnight and she's fine and dandy. All bought a delicious pie from butter's and we had a milk and pie party before retiring. Jim is a good boy and is talking French. He's learning, naturally and I just ignore this latest phase. He gets her school classes quickly.

All the family are well and Bob is expected in bright efforts to the folks and then to day and all is fine. This evening I left away my bathing and listening to the good programs on the radio. Stay well darling and I'm missing you as always. All love and devotion and hugs and kisses from Jim. Best wishes from Et. Lovingly
