Dear George.

I am hoping this catches you at nptm.. Well now that you have started corresponding you are going to find out something that you never knew about this one of the Trailers boys. That is that you are going to have one hell of a time reading his mail. Its practically impossible. But that your hardluck, all I have to do is write it.

By this time you have a pretty rough idea of what the Army is like. It isnt as tough as they make it out to be as simple as others say it is. I do hope things pan out the right way. Have been speaking to Florence pretty regularly and from the sound of things all is pretty fair and things are humming along. Thanks to Jimmy.

Nothing much in the way of news has been coming out the past few days. For the time being, I wait know your little head about Lodge ship, but will let you have it at some later date when your head is a bit easier.

Wish I knew, but I got a small friend, I always knew that you would manage to fuggle them as this I.C.

Well I think as this is your first sample of my script, I believe that you have had enough fun with it. As for the time being I'll sign off. Atg well.

As ever
