Thursday Nov 30th 45

George, sweetheart,

It's snowing again and looking at the country all around us makes me think of a Christmas card. It's so beautiful and makes me feel as though I'm living in a new, wonderful world. After lunch, I expect to tramp through the snow alone with only thoughts of you, my dearest one. My will watch over the precious babies and when I get back I'll entertain them with stories and bubble blowing. We're having some fun games and bubble blowing. We're having some fun here and we'll be coming back again in a few weeks. You love it here but then again, he loves life itself.

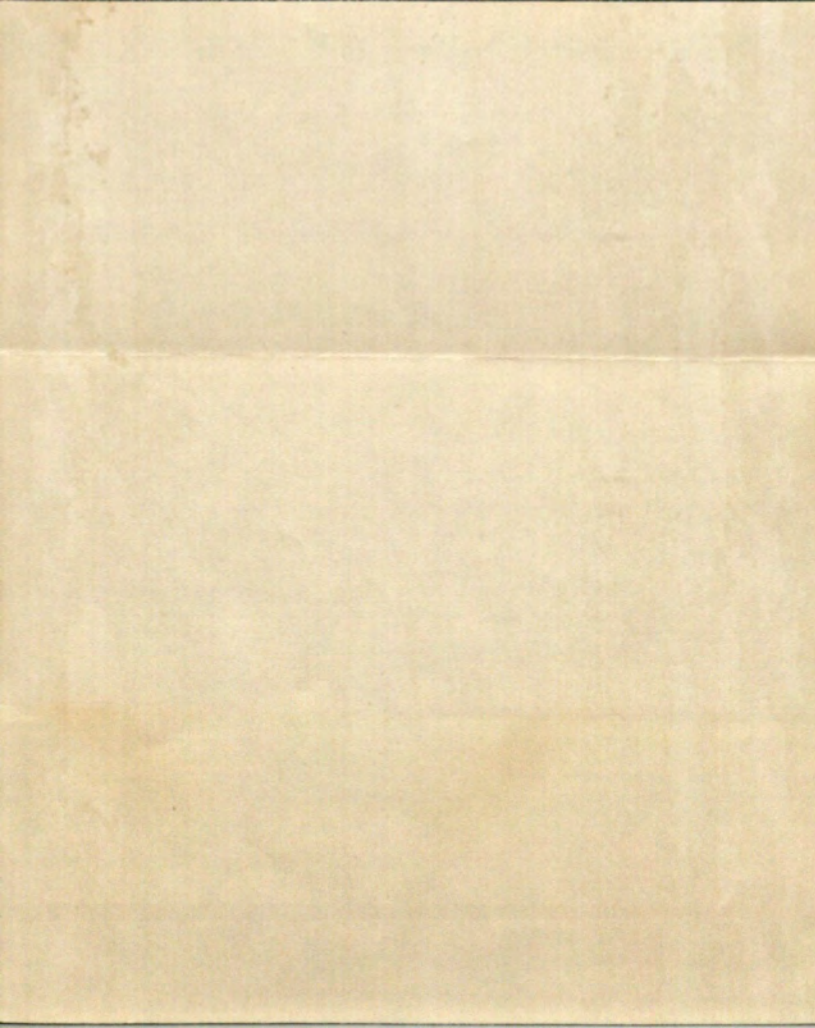

We spent a restful night and had a nice breakfast at 9. I prepared a delicious chicken and rice dinner and hope you get a whiff of it. You'll never eat that same chow again after the war so I'll brush up on all those good things you like to eat. Don't worry, darling, we'll have those wonderful years together yet.

I love you with all my heart and I'm sending you hisses and kisses and love.
