George, my love,
Jim and I are just fine but miss you as always. Received your Feb. 4th letter today and glad you have a friend like Frank.
Fetho are well and said that Uncle Sam had some letters from Joe. I just wrote a V-mail to Joe.
Maurice came home tonight and I'll probably see him tomorrow. All the family is well and Jim is still the rascal. I cleaned out our toaster today and found hairpins, socks, clips and stuck in it. Jim's work. Weather was nice this morning and we ventured out for sunshine and air. We slept for the first time and it sure felt luxurious. How are you doing these days?
Mayera called today, is fine and sends his best to you. Am busy finishing up some more recalls for Jim and a pretty nightgown for me. Stay well Alasat and all my love and devotion to you. Misses from Frank and I.
