

PRIVATE WIRE

E. LOWITZ & CO.

Tuesday

Dear George:

Breaking this in between ticks, as conditions at home prevent me from tending to personal matters. My wife is ill with the grippe.

Just got thru talking to Florence. All is well with her and Jimmy.

The market has turned quiet, and I expect it will remain so for a day or so before resuming its push.

I am now a member of that horrible institution of Father-in-Law. The kids got married Saturday, and everything went grand. They phoned Sunday A.M.
and sounded very happy.

The enclosed clipping may surprise you,
but not unexpectedly.

Bear with me until things become more normal and I can resume my daily to you at more length

my best and best of luck Sincerely
M.L.
